It may not be the Taj Mahal but it's Not Exactly Roughing It!!

Piccadilly is going to stay for the first time in the heart of Beaver Creek Village. Beaver Creek celebrated its 30th anniversary on December 15, 2010. In 2015 they will be hosting the World Alpine Ski Championships. There are 149 trails and 4 terrain parks for all level of skiers and boarders, along with 2 bowls. There is plenty to do if you want to take a day off from skiing, such as snowshoeing tours, disco skate nights, shopping, plus many dining choices for your gastronomic pleasure. We would advise that you get to the village around 3 pm for your complimentary fresh baked chocolate chip cookie.

We will be staying at the "designer furnished" Townsend Place condos, conveniently located in the heart of the village, with ski-in/ski-out accommodations. All condos offer a wood-burning fireplace, washer/dryer, balcony and fully equipped kitchen. The Townsend is on the shuttle route and has a hot tub. You will be a quick five-minute ride on a complimentary shuttle to all that Beaver Creek Resort has to offer. You choose your ski area(s) with a three day interchangeable lift ticket to Beaver Creek/Vail/Keystone/Breckenridge/Arapahoe Basin.
