ANTICIPATION - The first of the six basic phrases of the classic ski turn followed in rapid succession by Initiation, Trepidation, Desperation, Exclamation and Recuperation.

It is with great Anticipation that we look to the start of our busy summer social season, with a wide variety bike rides and the return of a First Folio performance ... have no Trepidation going on Harry's Burlington Pub Crawl, or joining our Softball teams...enjoy the Exclamation of the crowd at a Whitesox game....and find some Recuperation at the Family Picnic in August. See you out there. - Dawn

PSC ANNUAL BANQUET

Held at a new venue at the Willowbrook Holiday Inn - Some folks arrived early to start their evening then sauntered over to our packed Banquet room then back to the Lounge to finish the fun until 2am! Our "Talking Head" portion of the evening showcased the outgoing board, new incoming crew and then Ed handed out a special new award: Volunteer of the Year to Pam Rockey who went above and beyond all year long. Congrats and Thank You Pam!

Our Split the Pot Raffle winner was Joe Magee who walked away with over $400. (Joe, can I borrow some jing?) To continue raising funds for our American Blind Skiing Foundation friends, Pam 'gimpy' Rockey and 'Rent-A Studs' Don Z, Harry and Kevin Conlon, offered themselves up for a dollar a dance - or in Pam's case it was $5. (Personally, I think you are all worth more!) Their additional funds went directly to benefit ABSF. Ask Chewy and Barry which Rent-A-Studs they danced with. (I hope someone got a picture of that!) All evening long Poli's slide show kept people entertained, while DJ Jeff kept the dance floor full. And in the corner, Mike & Johnny looked like mirrored bookends sleeping at their respective sides of the table. Some folks used this as a photo op!

Many took advantage of the hotel discount and stayed overnight avoiding Barney Fife and crew waiting outside to grab impaired drivers. Ask Harry & Johnny about THEIR interesting sleepover.... "Those aren't pillows!" (I hope no one got a picture of THAT.)

Thank you to my helpers: Ed Carroll, Kathy Connolly, Marie Esposito-Lust, Monica Magee, Poli Garza, Susan Akk, Jan Lord, Mike Roche, Pam Rockey, Don Zebrauskas, Harry Mattson and Kevin Conlon. I couldn't do it without you guys and I could not image a better evening. Until next year.... Dawn

BIKE'N BREW BIKE RIDE

Saturday, June 25, 2011

Bike Leaders: Tori Pierce & Mike McCreary
Meet at 9:30am Start biking 10:00am sharp

This is an opportunity to try a great beer garden out in the suburbs and get some biking in at the same time. PSC, along with some members of other ski clubs (Chicago Friars, Hustlers & Sanctuary to name a few) will be biking the Salt Creek loop from Bemis Woods to Brookfield Zoo. This ride is approx. 15 miles round trip and should take approx. 2 hours. We'll meet in the parking lot at Bemis Woods. (On Ogden east of I294) After the ride we'll drive to Palmer Place Restaurant and Beer Garden in La Grange for lunch and libations. Palmer Place serves great hamburgers, salads and sandwiches, as well as over 300 different kinds of beer, 30 of them on tap. If you can't make it to the bike ride, join us for lunch at Palmer Place – about 1:00. Contact Mike @ michael.mccrery@sbcglobal.net
